

JUNIOR PROJECT ENGINEER - Liege

Our customer is specialized in multidisciplinary erection projects (steel and mechanical structures) in different industries (chemical, electrical, steel, ...)

Function:

You will work with Project and Site Managers in order to assist for preparation and carrying out projects:

- Drawing up and managing manuals, standard procedures and technical databases
- Develop and following up lifting and transport plans
- Designing custom lifting devices and auxiliary transport equipment
- Check site information and collect necessary data on site to guarantee a smooth engineering
- Drawing up method statements together with Project- and SHE Manager
- Determine the required equipment
- Working with staff in the field to develop solutions
- Preparing and checking execution planning with contract summary
- Controlling data in order to prepare invoicing
- Pointing out risks with regard to safety, the environment or health
- Keeping all technical project data up-to-date

Profile:

- Engineering degree
- You demonstrate good interpersonal skills, team spirit, flexibility, positive can-do attitude
- You are well organized and can cope with stress
- Willingness to travel mainly in Belgium and Germany
- Fluent in French and English. German would be an asset. Agree to follow language courses in one of these languages

- Safety and quality oriented

Offer:

A full time, permanent contract ; Education by an experienced employee

Interested ? Don't hesitate to send your CV to Chris Van Looy per e-mail or via linkedin